

Verification Policy

Audit records are retained for seven years from the date of record creation.

Verification Policy

Incident escalation begins with the on-call engineer and moves to the service owner for unresolved severity-one